The Union Meeting at Nashville—Denunciation of the Nashville Convention—Approval of the Compromise—Appeal to the North, &c.

Pursuant to a call very numerously signed by most distinguished members of both parties, a large concourse of citizens assembled at the Court-house on the 23d inst., for the purpose of giving an expression of popular sentiment in regard to the great question of the day.

The meeting went off with a degree of unanimity seldom witnessed, and was characterized by much spirit and enthusiasm.

The meeting was called to order at 12 o'clock. Judge Cahill was called to the chair.

The speakers were the Hon. Andrew Ewing and Major Donelson. The former gentleman supported, with much ability, the course of the Tennessee delegation in Congress, in the adjustment of the questions before that body, in its recent session, and administered a rebuke to those who talked of disunion and secession as a ground of redress for public grievances.

The following is a synopsis of the resolutions passed:—

That we are a Union-loving and law abiding people, and recognize submission to the laws as the primary duty of all good citizens. That no State has the constitutional right to secede; and any such attempt would be revoluntary, and its consequences entail civil strife and bloodshed. That the abolition mobs and riots in the Northern cities, for preventing the execution of the Fugitive Slave law, and their abolition conventions, and the continued agitation of the slavery issue, will, if persisted in, paralyze all our energies, and lead to the total alienation of one section of the Union from the other. That we maintain the right of the people of the States, whenever palpably, intolerably, and unconstitutionally oppressed, to throw off the chains that oppress them; but this right is involuntary in its character, and there is no present use for its exercise. Therefore, we see no need for a Southern Congress or Convention. That we unite around the constituted authority of the country, for the maintenance of the supremacy of the laws; and, in a spirit of kindness, we respectfully warn our Northern brethren that an attempt to repeal, or failure to enforce the Fugitive Slave Law, will unite all the South, and most probably end in a total separation of the States. That the Compromise measures of Congress meet our approbation, as the best that, under the circumstances, could be adopted, and we pledge ourselves to them to give them our hearty support.

DISCOVERY ON THE DAN.

We learn that the recent flood has revealed a strange sight on the banks of the Dan, embraced within Capt. Wm. Irwine's plantation a few miles from this town. It is the exhibition of numerous bones or skeletons of human beings—pieces of earthenware, Indian hatchets, bark, fire coals, &c. Some of the skeletons seem to have been buried in a sitting posture, and are nearly whole. There is no doubt but these are the bones of Indians, traces of whose encampments on the banks of the Dan are still visible. But to us the mystery is how they came to be buried in what seems to have been an encampment? Probably the earth caved in upon them and buried the poor creatures alive. The late flood washed the banks of the river so as to expose many of these bones to the eye, and upon examination, we learn that a variety of curiosities were found in connection. We contemplate visiting the scene in a few days and will let our readers hear all about the matter.—Milton (N. C.) Chronicle.

LOSING A SISTER ON MONTE.

A robbery occurred, a short time ago, in Sacramento City, and among the articles stolen were a number of miniatures. A few evenings afterward a young man was observed by a policeman to enter the Eldorado, and after losing all his money, he bet a gold ring and the miniature on a card, and the policeman thinking the miniature might lead to the detection of the thief, arrested the gentleman and took charge of the minaiture lady, which by the way, was beautiful.—Several gentlemen who came forward the next morning to assist the young man out of his difficulty, testified that the miniature was that of an only sister, a lovely girl of sixteen. What will the young lady say when she ascertains that she has been laid upon the monte table, gambled away, afterwards arrested and put in the tombs, next morning brought before the Recorder, admired by the members of the bar, and after many compliments, finally restored to the unworthy brother.

Mr. Person, of Moore,

ON THE BILL

TO REPEAL THE ACT OF INCORPORATION OF THE

N. C. R. R. COMPANY.

The position I occupied at the last session of the Legislature, in relation to the North Carolina Rail Road, makes it necessary for me to state the reasons which induce me to vote to reject the bill introduced by the gentleman from Wayne, (Mr. Sherard,) for the repeal of its charter. It is well known to some here, that I was opposed to that road—that I was the first man in the House of Commons who made a speech against it, not as I then avowed, and now reiterate, upon the ground of general opposition to works of Internal Improvement, but because I then thought and still think the State's investment too large by far in proportion to any reasonable prospect of return into her Treasury from that source. But it is not my purpose now to discuss the merits of that question.—My sole object is to place myself in such a situation as to be protected against improper construction on account of the vote which I shall give upon the motion of the gentleman from Richmond, (Mr. Steele.)

What is it the gentleman from Wayne asks us to do, and why does he ask it? He asks that we shall cause the State to violate a solemn contract entered into with her own citizens, and his main design in making this modest request, is that he may secure a test of parties upon this question.—How I ask is that to be made a test of political parties, which had its origin not in the separate action of either of the political parties of the State, but by the concurrent action of both? I see around me here now, distinguished men of both parties, and can call to mind many more, who were the zealous advocates and warm supporters of this measure. It was not a question of parties in the beginning, but of policy, and it cannot be made so now; it ought not to be made so, for if it shall bring about the grand results which its friends have predicted for it, let the honor be to those of both parties who aided in its passage; but if it fails as some of us think it will, the weight of responsibility will surely be heavy enough for them all. Then it is impossible for the gentleman to secure his primary object—a test of parties. But suppose he could. In what way does he propose to attain it? By disregarding the constitutional and moral obligation of the State to perform her part of the solemn contract between herself as one party, and many of her own citizens, as the other. To repeal the bill chartering that road would be a flagrant violation of the fundamental law of the land. It would be rescinding a contract by one of the parties to it, after it had been executed, without the consent of the other party—a wrong which neither States nor individuals are permitted by law to perpetrate. But suppose this constitutional barrier did not absolutely forbid repeal? Has a State no moral responsibility? Are such undertakings as have only a moral sanction to be disregarded by a State, whenever interest or a change in the opinions of its representatives shall make the suggestion? In North Carolina, at least, I trust not. Let us preserve her honor and her faith unsullied and unquestioned. Differing as she does from her sister States in laws, in government and in character, let all of us who love her see to it that she shall never assimilate herself to some of them by a violation of her faith and a forfeiture of her honor.

I voted against the bill, at the last Session, and have no reason to regret it now, and I should do so again, were it an original proposition; but however much I may regret its passage, I cannot consent to its repeal, because it would involve a breach of constitutional and moral obligation, and place a foul stain upon the character of our State.

MR. JOYNER'S RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the people of North Carolina have ever cheished a cordial and sincere attachment to the Constitution and the Union of the United States, that they are deeply sensible of the many blessings and benefits, resulting from this Union, and are sensibly alive to the great, and overwhelming calamities which its dissolution would bring upon the people of this country. It is, however, nevertheless true, that the long continued wrongs, and increasing aggressions made by the people of the North on the institution of Slavery, established in the Southern States, an institution guaranteed by the constitution of the United States, and over which they have not one particle of rightful control, are gradually weakening and undermining this attachment, and if persisted in, must inevitably lead to the severance of the ties which bind together the States of this Union.

Resolved, That the acts of Compromise and Pacification passed at the last Session of Congress, for the admission of California as a State in the Union; for the government of the territories of Utah and New Mexico; for establishing the boundary of Texas; for suppressing the slave trade in the District of Columbia; for the recovery of fugitive Slaves; though regarded by many good and intelligent citizens, as inadequate to the just rights of the South, yet as a whole, if faithfully observed in all its parts, would meet the approval of the people of North Carolina.

Resolved, That a repeal of the Fugitive Slave Bill, passed at the last Session of Congress, or any material modification rendering its provisions inoperative, for the great purpose designed, would be regarded as a wrong and an outrage on Southern rights and property, justifying the most firm, united and determined resistance. And in either of the events, North Carolina will unite with her Southern Sister States, in a Convention, to provide the proper mode and manner of redress, and determined resistance to further encroachments on their rights.

Resolved, That whatever difference of opinion may exist in regard to the right of one or more States to secede from the Union, there can be no question as to the natural right of every people when the wrongs and oppressions of the government become no longer bearable, to resist and overthrow such government, and to establish other Governments founded on principles better calculated to secure the liberty and just rights of the people. To this dread alternative, the Southern people may unhappily be driven by the wrongs and injustice of their Northern brethren.

FOR THE REGISTER.

At a meeting of the citizens of Clarksville and vicinity, held at the Hotel of Mr. R. K. Clark, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 26th, 1850, Maj. E. A Williams was called to the Chair, and John A. Geoghegan appointed Secretary.

After addresses from Messrs. Carrington, Shelton, G. A. Wilson, Wood and A. C. Morton, Mr. Shelton submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That Henry Wood and E. A. Holloway, be appointed delegates to the seat of Government of North Carolina, to use their best efforts to procure the passage of a Law, by her Legislature, granting a right of way to the contemplated Clarksville and Gaston Rail Road.

Resolved, That our Representatives in the Virginia Legislature be requested to bring the subject of the Clarksville and Gaston Rail Road, before the Legislature, at as early a day as possible.

Resolved, That A. Morton and R. H Moss, be appointed a Committee to correspond with the citizens of Norfolk and Portsmouth, requesting them to appoint committees to co-operate with the committee appointed by this meeting, to procure a right of way from the State of North Carolina, and to aid our delegation in the Virginia Legislature, in procuring a charter.

Resolved, That Henry Wood and David Shelton be appointed delegates to the Virginia Legislature, on behalf of the citizens of Clarksville, to forward the scheme of a Rail Road from Clarksville to Gaston.

Resolved, That copies of these proceedings be forwarded to the Editors of papers in Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk and Raleigh, requesting their publication. E. A. WILLIAMS, Ch'm'n.

THE SLAVERY QUESTION IN THE LEGISLATURE.

The Joint Select Committee on Slavery are busily engaged, we understand, in considering the various propositions that have been referred to them; though we are not aware that a report may be expected at a very early day.

The resolutions of Col. JOYNER, of Halifax, which we publish to-day, strike us as being altogether more appropriate than any of the numerous series that have been introduced, thus far. Peculiarly characteristic of their author, they evince a Roman firmness, tempered with that spirit of prudence and caution which years and experience are so aptly calculated to impress. We design, this morning, in expressing our unhesitating preference for these resolutions, to show, by a contrast with, how much more acceptable they are than, those introduced in the Senate, a few days since, by the Hon. WILLIAM B. SHEPARD.

In the first place, the resolutions of Mr. Shepard, however devotedly that gentleman may be, and doubtless is, attached to the Union, do not express in language sufficiently strong and decided, the deep and heartfelt attachment thereto of the people of North Carolina—an attachment which can only be weakened by the force of direst circumstances, and which cannot be eradicated without the most painful reluctance. We do not over estimate that feeling of attachment, when we say that it is one in which our people are exceeded by those of no other State in the Confederacy. Situated between the land of abstractionists, on the one side, and the land of chivalry, on the other, and untainted by either, North Carolina has maintained an undiminished devotion to the great National character, under which she has prospered for more than half a century. It is certainly proper, then, that her feelings in this particular, and especially at the present crisis, should be fully reflected.

The second resolution of the series introduced by Col. Joyner, avows a willingness to stand up to and abide by the recent Acts of Adjustment, so long as they are faithfully observed by the North. In this connection, Mr. Shepard's resolutions are entirely silent. Here is an essential difference, which will strike the reader at once, without our dwelling upon it.

But it is in the fourth of Col. Joyner's resolutions, that we especially recognize a better adaptedness to the crisis with which we are contending. That resolution, it will be seen, declines making an unnecessary issue upon the question, "whether a State has a right to secede"—a question which can only embarass and divide us, and defeat the common end at which we are all aiming.

The resolutions of Mr. Shepard avow the right of SECESSION—that it was never surrendered by the States under the Constitution; yet the Constitution, they admit, was adopted "to form a more perfect union."—A self destroying Constitution this, and one which, though adopted to form between the States, "a more perfect union," makes that union a rope of sand, to be shivered at the will and pleasure of any one State!

Again: One of the Resolutions declares that "whenever its provisions are so perverted or changed, &c., it ceases to be the constitution agreed to." We presume that not even the veriest tyro in the whole State will controvert the fact, that if the Constitution is changed, it cannot be the Constitution agreed to. But it is news to us, that the "perversion" of any thing necessarily changes the thing itself! You may call a sun-flower, a rose, and place it in your nosegay, but it will be a sun-flower still; and the calling it a rose will not make it emit a perfume! If the consultation is perverted for justice sake let us not denounce the old charter it self, but apply the lash to the "perverters." We think we have now the Constitution we always had, and what is needed is, sticking to it as it is. According to our notion, secession is far from doing this, as its inevitable consequence is, to convert and pervert the Constitution into a more contemptible agreement than the ordinary articles of copartnership in mercantile business!

Besides, these resolutions declare, (we understand that they have been somewhat modified; how, we are unapprised) the tyranical doctrine that if by a popular vote, of even one majority, the State resolves to secede and break up the Union and get from under the Federal Constitution, the minority must submit forthwith, and come into measures, or they can by right be hung as "rebels and traitors," their property confiscated, their wives made widows, and their children orphans! This is liberty for you with a vengeance! And let the Legislature put forth such a principle, and they will soon see what response they will have from the People. The truth is, and we say it with great respect for Mr. Shepard, this matter looks to us like something worse than the doctrine of NULLIFICATION, which gained no permanent foothold in our State, when Gen. Jackson lived And we rather opine that, even now, there will hardly be enough to hang the traitors under the Resolution!

We will pursue these remarks in our next.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, NOV. 29th, 1850.

The Senate met according to adjournment.

Mr. Speaker announced Messrs. Clark, Bynum, Caldwell, of Mecklenburg, Rogers and Pender, as Senate Branch of committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Williamson presented a memorial from sundry citizens from the town of Milton, engaged in the manufacture of Tobacco, praying for an exposition of the Revenue Law of the last session. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Courts, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred the resolution of F. J. Prentiss, reported a resolution, which was agreed to.

Mr. Washington introduced a resolution, assigning a room for the use and convenience of the principal Clerk of the Senate. Passed.

Mr. Rogers, a resolution that the Committee on Judiciary be requested to enquire into the expediency of amending the act passed at the Session of 1848-'49, entitled an act, more effectually to prevent the selling or giving away spirituous Liquors, at or near places of public worship, and, that they report by bill or otherwise. Agreed to.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the bill, entitled a bill to make real estate assets &c., which on motion of Mr. Washington, was laid on the table.

Mr. Haughton introduced a bill to provide for the incorporation of Companies to construct plank roads, and of Companies to construct Turnpike roads, and for other purposes; which was read the first time and passed; and on his motion referred to Committee on Corporations, and ordered to be printed.

The bill to incorporate the Fayetteville and Southern plank road Co., was taken up, amended, on motion of Mr. Bynum, passed its third and last reading, and ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Hill introduced a bill to repeal a portion of an act, entitled an act, to erect a Toll bridge over Catawba River, between the Counties of Caldwell and Catawba, passed during the Session of 1848-49, which, on motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Burke was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvement.

Mr. Cameron presented the resignation of Mr. Jonathan Evans, a Justice of the Peace of the County of Cumberland; which was read and accepted.

On motion of Mr. Gilmer, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, NOV. 29 h.

The House Journals having been read,

Mr. Caldwell of Rowan presented a memorial which was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Saunders, of Wake, introduced resolutions that the Committee on Internal Improvements be instructed to inquire into the expediency of repairing or disposing of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. In explanation, he stated that the road could not possibly be run much longer in its present condition, and that some step should be taken to restore it at once to good order, or it must be abandoned. Either the State shall do the repairs, or a Company be formed in which the State be principal stockholder, or the Road be sold.—The engineer now employed to examine the condition of the Road, would report in a few days that the road could be relaid with T iron for not over $500,000; probably $400,000. The resolutions were ordered to be laid on the table and printed.

Mr. Saunders also introduced a Bill to incorporate Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, Royal Arch Masons in the City of Raleigh. Referred.

Mr. Drake introduced a Bill to regulate the duties of Clerks of the Superior Court. Referred.

Mr. Steele, a Resolution that the Committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire into the expediency of altering the military law by which persons over 35 years of age are exempted from military duty; which was adopted.

Mr. Brodgen introduced the following resolutions, which were referred to the Committee on Negro Slavery.

Resolved, That this Government is one of limited powers, and that by the Constitution of the United States, Congress has no jurisdiction whatever over the subject of Slavery in the several States of the Confederacy.

Resolved, That the abolition of the slave trade in the District of Columbia, the petitions for the abolition of Slavery in said District and in the territories of the United States, and against the removal of Slaves from one State to another, are a part of a plan of operations, set on foot to affect the institution of Slavery in the several States and thus indirectly destroy the institution within their limits.

Resolved, That Congress has no right to do that indirectly which it cannot do directly and that the agitation of the subject of slavery in Congress as a means of excluding it from the common territories of the United States, and with a view of disturbing or overthrowing that institution in the several states is against the true spirit and meaning of the Constitution, an infringement of the rights of the States affected, and a breach of the public faith upon which they entered into the Confederation.

Resolved, That the Constitution of United States rests upon the broad principle of equality among the members of the Confederacy. And that Congress, in the exercise of its acknowledged powers, has no right to discriminate between the institutions of one portion of the States and another, with a view of abolishing one and promoting the other.

Resolved, That all the attempts on the part of Congress to abolish Slavery in the District of Columbia, or the territories, or to prohibit the removal of Slaves from one portion of the Confederacy to another, with the views aforesaid, are in violation of the Constitution, destructive of the fundamental principles on which the Union of the States rests, and beyond the jurisdiction of Congress.

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with, or control the domestic institution of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appertaining to their own domestic affairs, not prohibited by the Constitution; that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take incipient steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most alarming and dangerous consequences, and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union, and ought not to be countenanced by any friend to our political institutions.

Resolved, That the law passed at the last Session of Congress, known as the Fugitive Slave law, is in accordance with the spirit and letter of the Constitution of the United States and its repeal by Congress will be deemed a just cause for North Carolina to secede from the Confederacy.

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be and they are hereby instructed, and our Representatives requested to carry into effect the principles set forth in the foregoing resolutions

Resolved, That the Governor of this State be requested to forward a copy of these Resolutions to each of our Senators in Congress with a request that they lay them before the Senate of the United States.

Mr. Ruffin, a bill to appoint Commissioners for the town of Wentworth, Rockingham County. Referred.

Mr. Brogden, a Bill concerning Assaults and Batteries. Referred.

Mr. Russel a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Montgomery County.

Mr. Mizell, a Resolution that the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the expediency of amending the law concerning executors and administrators; which was adopted.

Mr. Campbell, a Resolution to appoint a committee of three to inquire why the rules of the House had not been printed; which was adopted and Messrs. Campbell, Newsom and L. B. Sanders appointed said Committee.

The Speaker having announced that the reports from the several standing Committees were now in order,

Mr. Person, from the Committee on Revenue, said that owing to the large amount of matter before the Committee, they would be unable to report until next week.

Mr. Steele from the Committee on Education, to which was referred a Bill to incorporate the Windsor Male Academy, reported favorably with a slight amendment, which was concurred in and the Bill put on its 2nd reading and passed.

Mr. Steele from the same Committee, to which was referred a proposition to amend an act of 1848-'9, on the subject of common schools, reported a Bill to repeal a portion of the same so as to allow the people of each School District to elect their own Committee men. [An interesting discussion followed, participated in by Messrs. Leach, of Davidson, Mastin, Webb, Cherry, Erwin, Pigott, Flemming, Saunders, of Wake, Brogden, A. G. Foster, and Stevenson, but as the subject will soon again become the subject of more extended detail, we do not propose to give any sketch of the present one.]

Mr. Saunders suggested that the subject be recommitted. Information of a startling character was in the hands of his Excellency, the Governor, which he thought would be laid before the Committee at a proper time, and without which they would be acting in the dark. Mr. Leach moved an amendment to the bill, to the effect that if the people of any district shall fail to elect their committee-men, he Chairman of the Board of Superintendents shall have the power of appointment.—Adopted.

Mr. Stevenson moved that the subject be recommitted, and Mr. Wiley stated that there was a bill before the Committee in which the whole subject would come up, and hoped that Mr. Stevenson's motion would prevail; and the question upon recommittal being taken, it was carried by a large majority.

Mr. Steele, from the same Committee, to which was referred a proposition to make annual, instead of semi annual dividends of the school fund, begged to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. Concurred in.

Mr. Rayner, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, to which was referred a bill to incorporate the Raleigh and Greenville Plank Road Co., reported the same with a recommendation to pass, with an amendment, restricting the dividends to be declared to 25 per cent; which was adopted. Also, moved as an additional amendment to strike out the term of 99 years as the duration of the Charter, and insert 25 years. Agreed to.

Mr. Taylor moved further to amend, by inserting the individual clause, and demanded the Ayes and Nays upon his motion to amend. And the Ayes and Nays were called. Ayes 35; Nays 73. And the bill being put on its second reading, was passed.

A message was received from t ing to the House proposition to ra
Committee on Military Affairs:
proposition to raise a Joint Sele

And on motion of Mr. Flemm

Nov. 26th, 1850.

And on motion of Mr. Flemming, the House adjourned.

Mississippi Legislature—A Convention to be Called—Passage of Resolutions Censuring Senator Foote, &c.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 25, 1850.—In the Senate, the only action to-day was the report of the bill by the joint committee providing for a Covention in November, 1851, to be elected in September, next.

No vote was had on the resolutions censuring Gen. Foote.

The House passed a resolution censuring General Foote, by a majority of 50 to 37—13 absent and not voting.

At the evening session, resolutions were introduced declaring the Adjustment Bill satisfactory, and secession not justifiable unless the fugitive bill be repealed or slavery abolished in the District of Columbia, which were indefinitely postponed by a large majority.

A message was received from the Governor in relation to the reorganization of the militia, and will give rise to prolonged and exciting debates.

The convention will be called by the Legislature.

Administration and opposition parties are holding meetings every night.

General Davis speaks to-night.

LYING IN BED FOR FORTY YEARS.

Considerably above forty years ago, a yeoman of the neighborhood of Keighley, England, got entangled in the meshes of the tender passion and suffered disappointment.—Having taken to bed at that time, he has kept it ever since; neither threat nor entreaties ever once induce him to leave it. His health is unmjuried; he eats well; is conscious of all that is being done around him and enjoying a small competency, he resolves to end his days where he has so gloriously immured himself for nearly half a century.

'SILVER GRAYS,' AND 'WOOLLY HEADS.'—This State has been famous for giving new names to party politicians. The State has been divided into 'buck-tails' 'pewter muggers,' &c., in aforetimes, as now with 'locofocos,' 'hunkers,' and 'barnburners'—names all originating in New York.

Two new parties have recently come into existence, dividing the Whigs as the "hunkers and barnburners' divide the democrats; and these new parties are already christened 'silver grays and woolly-heads?' The Utica Convention Fillmore men are nicknamed 'silver greys,' and the Syracuse Seward men are nicknamed 'woolly-heads.'

FREE NEGROES AT THE SOUTH.

The Southern Press opposes the proposition to remove the free negroes from the Southern States. It opposes such a measure objectionable both on the score of humanity and expediency. It does not believe that the safety of the Southern people and a proper regard for the welfare and subordination of the slaves demand the removal of the free blacks. It gives its views at length upon the subject which it says it has long and seriously considered.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS
FOR 1850.
Fresh Arrivals from the Latest Importations!

THOMAS R. FENTRESS,
MERCHANT TAYLOR, RALEIGH N. C.
ONE DOOR ABOVE THE POST OFFICE.

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and patrons—to the members of the Legislature—and to strangers visiting the City, that he continues to carry on the Tailoring Business in all its branches at his old stand, where he shall be happy to see them and sell them great bargains. The subscriber had deemed it unnecessary recently to advertise his business, as he was so well known throughout the State; but for fear his old friends and customers might be under the impression that he was carried away by the great "tornado" which passed Northwards a few days ago, he has thought it best to inform them that he is still in business and hopes they will give him a call. He would say to old friends and customers that the liberal patronage he has received since he has been here, has cemented him still more closely to the good old State of North Carolina; and he trusts that their patronage will continue to be bestowed on one who feels he kindly appreciates it; and for his part there shall be nothing lacking to give entire satisfaction. He might say more, but it is sufficient for him to say that he has the feelings of a North Carolinian. He is permanently located here—his interests are here—and here he expects to live and die.

The Subscriber is a friend and well-wisher to all mechanical business in the "Old North State." He thinks it the duty of our people to encourage our own hard-working mechanics, and keep them with us, and not drive them from our borders by encouraging manufacturers at a distance from us. We may wish for good times and State improvements, but we will never see them until we come to depend on our own mechanics, on home manufactures and home industry. When we come to do this then wi l we see our Cities and Towns flourishing; and our means will not be sent off to the "great City" of New York or Boston for articles that can be made in this State as well as at either of these places, and on as good terms.

The Subscriber has on hand a beautiful assortment of GOODS, selected by himself in person in the Northern Markets, of the latest and most approved styles and patterns. His Goods were purchased this Fall, and are entirely new. They were bought on as good terms as those of any House in this City; and he flatters himself that he can offer as liberal if not better bargains than any other Establishment in this City or in the United States. Call and examine for yourselves. You must be your own judges, and you will find this no mere "puff." The Subscriber considers it unnecessary to say any thing about the skill in cutting or making, as his business is conducted by himself; and he will leave it to those who deal with him to judge of his capacity in this respect. His experience in business is such, and he has been so long before the public, that he will not stoop to commend his own skill and attainments. He leaves it to his friends and customers to judge of his superiority over many who presume to call themselves Tailors, or Cutters, or "Artists"—if you please. His workmen cannot be surpassed by any, North or South, and he invites the public to call and try him before purchasing elsewhere. He pledges his word for good bargains, as he is determined to sell low.

His Stock comprises every article kept in similar Establishments. There is nothing you may call for which you cannot get. Call and try the well known Establishment, one door North of the Post Office

The Subscriber's Stock comprises the Super black French Cloths and Cassimers—plain and doeskin, of all qualities and prices, and a splendid assortment of fancy Cloth, which for colors and quality cannot be surpassed. Also, a beautiful lot of plain black Satin Vestings, and a superb article of fancy French Silk and Satins for parties, with a choice variety of Fancy Cassimers for winter wear, and a very large lot of fancy French Cassimers, which will be disposed of on a very small advance. Also, a general assortment of fancy articles, consisting of lamb's wool, merino and silk Under shirts and Drawers—Dress Shirts, black and white kid, merino, and fancy cassimere Gloves—Half hose, cotton and merino—black and fancy silk Cravats; all of which are offered at uncommonly low prices. Also, a beautiful lot of READY-MADE CLOTHING, made in my own House, and which will be disposed of at the most reasonable prices.

Call and examine for yourselves.

N. B. Orders from a distance will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. The London and Paris Fashions regularly received.

"WHOSEVER DARE THESE 'BOOTS' DISPLACE, MUST MEET BOMBASTES, FACE TO FACE."

Alfred Mitchell, alias "BOOTS," for short, and by way of dignity, respectfully informs his numerous customers, that he has recently fitted up his Establishment, in the best style, and is now thoroughly prepared to carry on his business as BARBER, just "as it used to was," with the exception that he thinks he has improved by practice both in skill and manners.

The Members of the approaching Legislature, and my old customers especially, of that body, will always find me ready to shave, and trim hair, in the quickest, easiest, and most fashionable manner; and if any should prefer the old fashoin, "Boots" will be entirely agreeable, and conform to the tastes and wishes of his customers.

On application, Ladies and Gentlemen can have their Hair curled most elegantly, according to the prevailing fashions.

No reference is made to particular gentlemen—my qualifications must be judged of by the community which I have served in my line of business, for a number of years.

Hair will also be cleared of dandruff, and if requested, dyed any coler, to suit the costomers.

My establishment is on Fayetteville Street, within two doors of Yarbrough's New Hotel.

Southern Home Manufactory.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MUCH has been said in Congress, by Southern members, about the rights of the South—This community and surrounding country now have an opportunity of patronizing their own merchants and those who make up gentlemen's wearing apparel, by calling at the Proprietor's new Establishment, opposite the Post office.

The Preprietor, having made the SCIENCE of cutting Gentlemen's fashionable clothing his study, in the most fashionable Cities, for many years, is now prepared to give satisfaction to all who may want their clothing made. Gentlemen furnishing cloth and trimmings, will thus give employment to many in the City of Raleigh.

Those who only wish their garments cut shall have them warranted to fit, and at moderate prices. Gentlemen's garments altered and repaired at the shortest notice.

The New York and Philadelphia Fashions for the Fall and Winter just received.

WANTED, immediately, two first-rate Coatmakers, to whom the highest wages will be given.

PRESERVED GINGER, just received by
L. B. WALKER.

The "Bug" also at Home again.

I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, N. York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said Cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by himself, and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be verdant enough to question my capacity after the eloquent tribute paid to my 'artistic skill, in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs. Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.

Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our goods. Who is there in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Badger, the Hon. Wm. H. Haywood, Jr., and 'Bug' Oliver, Why 'their fame is no more to be hemmed in by State lines than their talents are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits.'

We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, they may—with no Northern House—but we are Tailors ourselves—buy our own goods, and import quite as many of what we purchase in proportion to our business, as any house in this State or out of it. There is no establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantage over us. We buy where every body else buys, and we think we understand our business and buy as cheaply. We say our clothing is equal to any offered for sale in North Carolina, and, we think superior, being Judges ourselves of clothing. Of that though, we will leave the public to decide, when they examine for themselves. One thing is certain—without intending to reflect upon any one—we will sell our clothing cheaper than the same articles can be bought for in any of the Northern Cities, and as cheap as any body that comes here, who does not steal his clothing ready made

Our stock embracing Drab, Black, Blue, Green, Gray, and other OVERCOATS from 6 to $20 and upwards. Cloaks, full circle, $18 upwards. Frock, dress, and Sack COATS from 7 to $12 and upwards. PANTALOONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8. VESTS, all kinds and all sizes, at all prices from $1,25 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.

We are North Carolinians. We are permanently located here, and if we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at as small a price, we will not ask your patronage.

L. B. WALKER,

HARD to beat for the accommodation of the citizens of Raleigh, would say that he has in his employ two as good workmen as can be procured anywhere. He has been at considerable expense in the Baking business, and will do all in his power to give satisfaction. It is with the citizens to say, whether or not a Bakery should be supported. At any rate, he will give the business a fair trial this Winter.
